Computers available here for your use!

Public-access computers are available for your use here at SIC Housing. Just ask at reception and we will show you how to get started!

Our public-access computers are available for your use. They are free of charge and can be used by the public to gain independent advice and to find out about the housing options available here in Shetland.

A Shetland specific guide to Housing Options is available online at:

www.shetland.gov.uk/housingoptionsguide/

The Housing Options Guide provides advice and information about YOUR housing options in Shetland.
