

Am I a key worker in the COVID-19 response?

Information on key workers can be found using the following link:

<https://www.shetland.gov.uk/news-advice/Critical-childcare-for-key-workers-21032020.asp>

Yes

No

Are both parent/carers a key worker in the COVID-19 response?

Your child should be at home.

Yes

No

The advice is that if one parent/carer is not a critical worker then they would be responsible for childcare. Your child should be at home.

Are you able to keep your child safe at home? Is there at least one parent/carer working from home? Is there a non-vulnerable relative or friend, nanny or babysitter who could care for your child from your home?

If there is a parent/carer working from home, this should be your childcare arrangement. Where essential, children can be cared for at home by a non-vulnerable carer from another household.

No

Yes

Scottish Government Guidance for Keyworkers
Staying at home is the best way to limit the spread of the virus.

Have you discussed your childcare requirements with your line manager?

Contact your line manager to discuss your situation. There may be options for flexible working.

Yes

No

Scottish Government Guidance for Employees and Employers

Please email elc@shetland.gov.uk to request a registration form. We might be able to help.

Critical childcare places are extremely limited. We want to be able to support those at the frontline. Please help us by following these steps.